

Chapter 29

Causes for WW I: Nationalism, Imperialism, Alliances, Weapons

France/Germany mistrusted each other As did Britain/Germany

Austria annexed Serbia

New War Total War(machine guns, planes, blimps, poison gas, trench warfare)

-Use of Propaganda(Everyone involved including colonies)

Women Worked in the Factories

Japan allied with the Allies

Russia Revolution(Lenin)

-People were starving(promised Peace, Land, Bread)

-Signed with Germany Treaty of Brest-Litovsk

U.S. Entry Used the Monroe Doctrine(Zimmerman Note)

Treaty of Versailles Punished Germany!!!! NO!!!!!!

Chapter 30

Russian Revolution: Terrible working conditions, Bolsheviks vs Mensheviks, Peace, Land, Bread!(City driven)

Chinese Revolution: Poor conditions in the countryside, Nationalist vs the Communist, The Long March

India: Cotton was the main product. People Starved to death.

-Gandhi preached civil disobedience.

-Amritsar Massacre stirred Nationalist movement

Turkey: Modernized. Influenced the Young Turks

-Other parts of the Ottoman Empire were broken into nations.

Chapter 31

Rise of Dictators

-Germany → Hitler was against Weimar Republic

-Italy → Mussolini- regain past glory

High inflation in Germany

Collapse of the World Economy

-To many poor, over production, industry was making less profit, banks called on loans

Japan → invaded Manchuria (needed coal)

Events to War: (League of Nations FAILED!!!!)

1931 invasion of Manchuria

1935 Italy invades Ethiopia

1936 Germany takes the Rhineland

1938 Austria and Czechoslovakia

1939 Germany invaded Poland (formal declaration of war)

Chapter 32

Axis Nations: Germany, Italy, Japan

Allies: U.S., G.B. Soviets, China, France

Millions died: Battles and Home Front

New Technology(Radar, Atomic Bomb)

Japan 1931 invasion of Manchuria, Italy 1936 invasion of Ethiopia

Germany 1939 invasion of Poland

U.S. drawn in after Pearl Harbor, D-Day June 1944

Women & Their role in society

Holocaust: 6 million Jews were killed